ACCOUNT TERMS
Managed Account Disclosure	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Landlord Rent Security Deposit Account is intended to hold and segregate funds belonging to tenants (each, a “Client”) maintained as a rental security deposit (a “Security Deposit Account”). This product consists of a single control account established in your name (the “Control Account”), which is a non-interest bearing checking account, with linked interest bearing sub-accounts opened in the names of your Clients (each, a “Client Account”) that allow for the calculation and payment of security deposit interest to tenants and the collection of landlord fees related to security deposits as allowed in certain jurisdictions. For each Client Account you will need to provide a taxpayer identification number and tax certification of the Client that owns the funds. The account terms described within this Landlord Rent Security Deposit – Client Account Receipt are related to the Client Account. Please refer to the Landlord Rent Security Deposit – Control Account Receipt for account terms related to the Control Account. All accounts as part of this product are subject to the terms and conditions detailed within your Account Agreement and Privacy Notice.
Minimum Opening Deposit	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is no minimum opening deposit requirement.
Annual Percentage Yield and Interest Rate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This is a variable-rate account. The interest rate and Annual Percentage Yield (“APY”) for your Client Account (also referred to as your “account”) are subject to change daily at our sole discretion and without notice, and your entire balance will earn the interest rate and APY in effect for the balance tier associated with your daily balance. Interest rates may change at any time. Please contact your banking team for current interest rate and APY.
Interest Compounding and Crediting	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interest will be compounded and credited on a monthly basis based on your daily balance. Interest is calculated daily. We use the daily balance method to calculate interest. This method applies a daily periodic rate to the principal balance in the account each day. This means that the interest is calculated every day on a 365-day year/366-day year for leap years. If you close Client Account before interest is credited, you will not receive any accrued interest. Any applicable fees are automatically debited to Client Account causing a reduction in your balance.

When Interest Begins To Accrue	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Interest begins to accrue no later than the business day we receive credit for the deposit of noncash items (for example, checks) within your Client Account.
Transaction Limits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> There is no limit on the number of transactions that can be made in the Client Account each month. We may refuse or limit telephone and mail withdrawals, at our discretion.
Fees	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Please see the Commercial Banking (Non-Analysis) Fee Schedule for applicable fees.

If there are nonsufficient funds or unavailable balance in your account, the Bank will not honor recurring authorized transactions, and all items presented for payment on your account will be returned. Please see the Commercial Banking (Non-Analysis) Fee Schedule for any fees applicable to returned items.
Special Circumstances	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> We do not open accounts with checks drawn on banks outside the United States ("U.S.") or with checks that are not payable in U.S. dollars. We send those checks for collection and will only open the account upon the check being collected.
